THE ANKOLE AGREEMENT, 1962

AN AGREEMENT made this thirtieth day of August, 1962, between Sir Walter Fleming Coutts, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Member of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Governor and Commander in Chief of the Uganda Protectorate (hereinafter referred to as the Governor) on behalf of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Her other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith OF THE ONE PART: and Nyakusinga Rubambansi Sir Charles Godfrey Gasyonga II, Omugabe of the Kingdom of Ankole (hereinafter referred to as the Omugabe) by and with the advice and consent of the Eishengyero for himself and his successors in office for and on behalf of the Eishengyero and the People of the Kingdom of Ankole in the Uganda Protectorate OF THE OTHER PART.

WHEREAS by an Agreement made on the 25th day of October, 1901, between Frederick J. Jackson, Esq., C.B., His Majesty's Acting Commissioner and Consul General for the Uganda Protectorate and the adjoining Territories, representing the Government of His Britannic Majesty the King of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India, ON THE ONE PART and the Omugabe and certain chiefs of Ankole OF THE OTHER PART certain rights and privileges of the Omugabe (incorrectly described as the Kabaka) of Ankole were defined and certain provisions made for the administration of Ankole and for the relationship between His Majesty's Government, the Government of the Uganda Protectorate and the Omugabe and Chiefs of Ankole:

AND WHEREAS the said Agreement of 1901 has been from time to time amended by further agreements between the Governor of Uganda and the Omugabe:

AND WHEREAS the Kingdom of Ankole is under Her Majesty's protection and is part of the Protectorate of Uganda (hereinafter called "Uganda"):

AND WHEREAS at discussions held in London in the months of September and October, 1961, between representatives of Her Majesty's Government and representatives of Uganda (including representatives of the Government of Uganda and of the Omugabe's Government) it was decided to recommend that a new Constitution should be established for Uganda under which Uganda would enjoy internal self-government and the Ankole Kingdom would continue to form part of Uganda:

AND WHEREAS it was also decided at the said discussions to recommend that the said Constitution should provide for a central Government for Uganda (hereinafter called "the Uganda Government") and a central Legislative Assembly (hereinafter called "the National Assembly") which would include eighty-two elected members, nine specially elected members and a Speaker and that certain provisions should be made for the relations between the Government of Uganda and the constituent parts of Uganda (including Ankole):

AND WHEREAS it is accordingly desirable that the relations between Her Majesty's Government should be defined in an Agreement between Her Majesty and the Omugabe and People of Ankole, the provisions of which will subsist until Her Majesty's Government ceases to have responsibility for the Government of Uganda:

AND WHEREAS Her Majesty's Government recognise the desirability of securing to the Omugabe's Government by provision in the Constitution of Uganda, certain independent revenues, that is to say, revenues that would be receivable by that Government as of right and without the authority of a law of the Uganda Legislature:

AND WHEREAS at the said discussions in London in 1961 an assurance was given that proposals submitted at the 1962 discussions by Her Majesty's Government for the constitutional provision to be made for Uganda upon Her Majesty's Government ceasing to have responsibility for the Government of Uganda would include proposals to the following effect—

(a) the initiative in proposing changes in entrenched constitutional provisions relating to the Kingdom of Ankole should be with the Eishengyero;

(b) any legislation by the Eishengyero on these matters would require the approval of a two-thirds majority of the Eishengyero and would not take effect until confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the National Assembly;

(c) in addition, the approval of the people of the Kingdom of Ankole should be signified by a two-thirds majority in a referendum:

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby agreed and declared as follows:—

1. (1) This Agreement may be cited as the Ankole Agreement, 1962.

Citation, commencement and revocation.

(2) The Agreements specified in the First Schedule to this Agreement are revoked.

(3) This Agreement shall come into force on the Thirtieth day of August, 1962.

2. (1) This Agreement shall be expressed in English and Runyankore but for the purpose of interpretation regard shall be had only to the English version. Interpretation.

(2) In this Agreement unless the context otherwise requires—“Ankole law” means a law enacted by the legislature of Ankole.

“Uganda law” means a law enacted by the legislature of Uganda.

3. The Omugabe shall be entitled to a salute of nine guns on ceremonial occasions. Salute of guns.

4. The Kingdom of Ankole shall be united in federal relationship with the rest of Uganda in accordance with the Constitution of Uganda and the Constitution of Ankole. Status of Ankole.

5. The boundaries of the Kingdom of Ankole shall be as set out in the Second Schedule to this Agreement. Boundaries of Ankole.

6. (1) The Constitution of Ankole as a Kingdom within Uganda shall be as set out in the Third Schedule to this Agreement. Constitution of Ankole.

(2) The provisions of the Constitution of Ankole may be altered by an Ankole law:

Provided that—

(a) a Bill for Ankole law altering the provisions of the said Constitution shall not be passed in the Eishengyero unless it has been supported on the final vote thereon by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the voting members of the Eishengyero;

(b) no Ankole law altering the provisions of Articles 6, 18, 19, 20, 27, 28, 31, 32, 33 and 34 of the said Constitution shall have effect unless the consent of the Governor to its having effect has been signified by Proclamation in the Uganda Gazette.

(3) Her Majesty's Government will take steps to give the Constitution of Ankole the force of law as part of the Constitution of Uganda.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution of Uganda (including the provisions of the Constitution of Ankole included therein)— Legislative powers.

(a) the legislature of Ankole shall have exclusive power to make laws for Ankole with respect to the matters specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Agreement;

(b) the legislature of Uganda shall have exclusive powers to make laws for Ankole with respect to matters other than the matters specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Agreement.

(2) The legislature of Uganda shall have power to confer upon the legislature of Ankole authority to make laws for Ankole with respect to any matter that is not included in Part II of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution of Uganda:

Provided that any such authority may be subject to conditions or restrictions and may be revoked at any time by the legislature of Uganda.

(3) Her Majesty's Government will take steps to give effect to the provisions of this article in the Constitution of Uganda.

Administration of justice in Ankole.

8. (1) The High Court of Uganda, when sitting in Ankole shall administer justice in the name of the Omugabe.

(2) Her Majesty's Government undertakes that provision which gives effect to this article will continue to be made in the Constitution of Uganda.

(3) Whenever any person is appointed to be Chief Justice of Uganda or a judge of the High Court of Uganda, the instrument appointing that person shall state that the Omugabe has, by virtue of this Agreement, authorised that person to administer justice in Ankole in the name of the Omugabe.

Functions
and services.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of this article, functions may be conferred on the Omugabe's Government, or on any officer or authority of the Kingdom, by the Governor or by a Uganda law.

(2) The functions of the Omugabe's Government shall include responsibility for the administration in Ankole of the services specified in Part I of the Fifth Schedule to this Agreement, subject to the conditions set out in that Schedule, and the Omugabe's Government shall administer those services in accordance with the laws relating thereto.

(3) The Omugabe's Government shall also, if it so wishes, be entitled to administer in Ankole the services specified in Part II of the Fifth Schedule to this Agreement, subject to the conditions set out in that part, and the Omugabe's Government shall accordingly administer those services in accordance with the laws relating thereto.

(4) The administration of services, other than services specified in the Fifth Schedule to this Agreement shall not be entrusted by the Uganda Government to the Omugabe's Government without the consent of the Omugabe's Government.

Financial provisions.

10. (1) Until provision is made in the Constitution of Uganda for the financial relationship between the Uganda Government and the Omugabe's Government—

(a) grants shall be made by the Uganda Government to the Omugabe's Government of such amounts, for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by or under any Uganda law for the time being in force;

(b) the revenues of the Omugabe's Government shall also, so far as the Omugabe's Government is authorised to collect such revenues by any law of the legislature of Uganda, include the following—

(i) graduated tax up to a maximum of six hundred shillings per annum per taxpayer;

(ii) rates;

(iii) rents and other revenue collected by the Land Board established for Ankole;

(iv) market dues;

(v) fees and fines;

(vi) interest on investments;

(vii) royalties;

(viii) donations, contributions and endowments;

(ix) reimbursements;

(x) such other revenues as may from time to time be agreed between the Uganda Government and the Omugabe's Government.

(2) The conduct of the financial administration of the Omugabe's Government shall be regulated by Uganda law.

11. (1) The Omugabe and the Omwigarire (Queen) shall be exempt from direct personal taxation under the laws of Uganda.

Exemption
from taxation
and other privileges.

(2) The revocation of the Ankole Agreement, 1901, shall not affect—

(a) the privileges secured by that Agreement to Daudi Ndibarema (Rubaremma);

(b) the rights of ownership of land allotted to any person in pursuance of that Agreement.

12. (1) No Uganda law, to the extent that it alters or replaces any provision of the Public Lands Ordinance, 1962, that applies in relation to Ankole, shall be brought into operation in Ankole unless the Eishengyero has, by resolution, approved its coming into operation.

Public
land.

(2) No direction shall be given under section 31 of the Public Lands Ordinance, 1962, to the Ankole Land Board and no rules shall be made under section 37 of that Ordinance unless a draft of the proposed directions or rules, as the case may be has been sent to the Speaker of the Eishengyero and the Eishengyero has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to debate the proposed directions or rules.

Recognition of Omugabe's
land.

13. It is recognised that under the customary law of Ankole the notional ownership of all land in Ankole is vested in the Omugabe, who holds it for the use and benefit of all persons lawfully possessing interests in that land;

Provided that nothing in this article shall be construed as—

(a) prejudicing or affecting the operation of the Public Lands Ordinance, 1962, or any other written law within the meaning of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance of Uganda that applies (or has applied in the past or may apply in the future) in relation to Ankole; or

(b) prejudicing or affecting any rule of law which has effect in Ankole under or in pursuance of any such written law; or

(c) prejudicing or affecting any freehold title or other right of ownership, use or occupation of land held under or in pursuance of any such written law; or

(d) conferring on the Omugabe any rights otherwise than under such customary law; or

(e) conferring on the Omugabe in relation to land held, occupied or used by any person under such customary law any right which the Omugabe did not possess under such customary law before this article came into operation; or

(f) restricting any right to legislate in respect of such customary law which may be conferred on the legislature of Ankole by the other provisions of this Agreement or by the Constitution of Ankole.

Local councils.

14. Provision will be made by Uganda law conferring power on the legislature of Ankole to establish local councils in counties, sub-counties, parishes and towns (not being included in any area referred to in the Third Schedule to the Constitution of Uganda) in Ankole, and to prescribe the functions of such councils.

Public
order.

15. (1) The Omugabe's Government shall take all reasonable steps within its powers to assist the Uganda Government in maintaining public order and public safety in Ankole and, subject to the provisions of any law, shall comply with any requirement of the Uganda Government with respect to those matters.

(2) In order to facilitate the discharge by the Omugabe's Government of its obligations under this article, there shall be established in accordance with the laws for the time being in force in Uganda, a police force for Ankole, which shall have such powers, duties and responsibilities as may be conferred upon it by any law.

16. The Uganda Government shall have responsibility for the administration of the town of Mbarara, which is part of the Kingdom of Ankole.

Administration of towns.

17. Crown forests in Ankole (the title to which has been vested in the Ankole Land Board) will continue to be administered by the Uganda Government until such time as the Uganda Government is satisfied that the Omugabe's Government has the resources and staff to administer them; the costs and profits of administering such forests will be shared in such manner as may be agreed between the Uganda Government and the Omugabe's Government.

Forests.

18. (1) The members of the Eishengyero shall be accorded the same parliamentary privileges as are accorded to members of the National Assembly.

Privileges
of members of Eishengyero.

(2) Her Majesty's Government undertakes that provision which gives effect to the provisions of this article will continue to be made in the Constitution of Uganda.

19. (1) The Governor may, and shall, if so requested by the Omugabe, refer to the High Court of Uganda any justiciable issue that is in dispute between Her Majesty's Government and the Omugabe arising out of the provisions of this Agreement, and the High Court shall determine the question in accordance with such procedure as the Chief Justice may direct.

Determina-
disputes.

(2) Appeals from the determination of the High Court of Uganda of any question referred to it in accordance with paragraph (1) of this article shall lie direct to Her Majesty in Council in accordance with such procedure as Her Majesty in Council or the Chief Justice may direct, and accordingly no appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa.

(3) Her Majesty's Government undertakes that the provision which gives effect to the provisions of this article will continue to be made in the Constitution of Uganda.

20. (1) The foregoing provisions of this Agreement shall have effect subject to such transitional provisions as may be agreed between the Governor and the Omugabe's Government.

Transitional.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (1) of this article it is hereby agreed that the Eishengyero subsisting at the date of commencement of this Agreement shall, unless earlier dissolved, stand dissolved at the expiration of six months from such date.

THIRD SCHEDULE TO THE AGREEMENT

THE CONSTITUTION OF ANKOLE

1. (1) In this Constitution, unless the context otherwise requires—“Ankole Staff Regulations” means the Ankole Staff Regulations made under the provisions of article 34 of this Constitution;

Interpretation.

“Bagyendanwa” means the Ankole Kingdom royal drums which signify the power of kingship;

“Eishengyero” means the Eishengyero (Legislative Assembly) of the Kingdom of Ankole;

“High Court” means the High Court of Uganda;

“Minister” means a member of the Council of Ministers constituted by article 6 of this Constitution;

“Omugabe” (King) means Rubambansi Sir Charles Godfrey Gasyonga II, and his successors in title under the provisions of this Constitution;

“Omugabe’s Government” means the Government established for the Kingdom of Ankole by this Constitution.

(2) Any reference in this Constitution to an officer in the service of the Uganda Government or the Omugabe’s Government by the term designating his office shall be construed as a reference to the officer for the time being lawfully performing the functions of the office.

2. (1) The Omugabe shall enjoy all the titles, dignities, and pre-eminence that attach to the office of Omugabe under the law and custom of Ankole.

The Omugabe.

(2) The Omugabe, the Omwigarire (Queen) and members of the Royal Family that is to say, descendants of Omugabe Rwebishengye (Abanyiginya n’Abanyiginyakazi), shall enjoy their customary titles and precedences.

(3) The Omugabe shall take precedence over all persons in Ankole except Her Majesty or Her Majesty’s principal representative in Uganda.

3. (1) The Omugabe of Ankole and his successors in title shall be entitled to nominate their heirs or successors to the throne of Ankole from amongst their sons lawfully begotten their brothers and the sons of their brothers in accordance with the Ankole customary law of

Succession and the nomination of heir to the Throne.

succession. In so doing they shall be advised by the following persons—

- (a) Omuhinda Omukuru (Senior Prince);
- (b) Nyino'mugabe (Queen Mother);
- (c) Munyanya Omugabe (Rubuga) (Princess);
- (d) the Enganzi;
- (e) the Chief Judge.

(2) So soon as an Omugabe has nominated his successor he shall record, or cause to be recorded, the name of the Prince nominated in a document signed by him and witnessed by Omuhinda Omukuru, Nyino'mugabe, Munyanya Omugabe, the Enganzi and the Chief Judge and shall either inform the Eishengyero of the name of the Prince nominated or seal the document and leave it in safe custody to be opened after his death or abdication.

(3) The Omugabe may change the nomination of his successor and where he does so the provisions of paragraph (1) of this article shall apply as if he were nominating his successor for the first time.

(4) Whenever the Omugabe dies or abdicates without nominating a successor, Omuhinda Omukuru, Nyino'mugabe, Munyanya Omugabe, the Enganzi, the Chief Judge, the Speaker and two other senior members of the Royal Family shall nominate his successor from amongst the sons of the late Omugabe or his brothers, and shall by writing signed in their own hands inform the Eishengyero of their choice.

(5) A successor nominated in accordance with the provisions of this article shall, when recognised by the Governor acting at his discretion on behalf of Her Majesty's Government, as the Omugabe of the Kingdom of Ankole succeed to the throne, title, and dignities of the Omugabe. He shall thereupon be allowed to uncover and symbolically strike the Bagyendanwa.

Recognition of Omugabe.

4. (1) The Governor on the death or abdication of an Omugabe shall, within one month of being informed in writing of the name of the Prince nominated as successor, recognise such a Prince on behalf of Her Majesty's Government as the Omugabe and as entitled to succeed to the throne of Ankole, unless he has reason to believe that the nomination has not been properly made.

(2) If the Governor has reason to believe that the nomination of the successor to an Omugabe who has died or abdicated has not been properly made he shall refer the matter to the High Court of Uganda; and the High Court shall determine the matter in accordance with such procedure as the Chief Justice may direct.

(3) On a reference being made under the provisions of paragraph (2) of this article, the Governor—

(a) if the High Court declares the nomination to which the reference relates to have been properly made, shall forthwith on behalf of Her Majesty's Government recognise the successor who has been nominated; and

(b) if the High Court declares such nomination not to have been properly made shall call upon the persons empowered to nominate under the provisions of paragraph (4) of article 3 of this Constitution to make a fresh nomination.

(4) The power conferred upon the Governor by this article shall be exercised at his discretion.

5. (1) (a) If at any time the Omugabe is under eighteen years of age or is unable, other than by reason of his absence from Ankole, to perform his functions under this Constitution or if as a result of a delay in the recognition of a successor to an Omugabe it is expedient so to do, the Eishengyero shall elect three persons to be Regents.

(b) A Regent elected under sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall cease to hold office—

(i) When the Omugabe becomes able to perform his functions under this Constitution; or

(ii) if he resigns by writing in his own hand addressed to the Speaker (Omukuru w'Entebe y'Eishengyero or Kashoboorizi);

(iii) if his appointment is terminated by a resolution of the Eishengyero upon a motion proposed by not less than ten members of the Eishengyero in favour of which there are cast the votes of not less than two-thirds of all members of the Eishengyero.

(c) The Eishengyero may elect a person to the office of Regent if at any time during the subsistence of a Regency under this paragraph that office has become vacant.

(2) (a) Whenever the Omugabe has occasion to be absent from Uganda, he may by writing in his own hand, appoint three persons to be Regents during his absence.

(b) A Regent appointed under sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall cease to hold office—

(i) upon the return of the Omugabe to Ankole;

(ii) if he resigns by writing under his hand addressed to the Omugabe;

(iii) if his appointment is terminated by the Omugabe; or

(iv) if the Omugabe ceases to be able to perform his functions under this Constitution otherwise than by reason of absence from Ankole.

(c) The Omugabe may appoint a person to the office of Regent if at any time during the subsistence of a Regency under this paragraph that office has become vacant.

(d) The powers referred to in this paragraph shall not be exercised during any period in which the Omugabe is under the age of eighteen years or is for any cause other than absence from Uganda unable to perform his functions under this Constitution.

(3) (a) Any function of the Omugabe under this Constitution shall be performed by the Regents in the same manner, so far as custom allows, as that in which the functions would be performed by the Omugabe save that the signature of two Regents shall be a sufficient signification of the will of the Regents.

(b) Where any matter is dependent on the decision of the Regents any decision shall be regarded as the decision of the Regents if two of the Regents are in favour thereof;

(c) If any Regent is absent from Ankole or for any reason unable to perform the functions of a Regent or if the office of one of the Regents is vacant, it shall be sufficient if the functions of the Regents are performed by two Regents.

Council of Ministers.

6. (1) There shall be a Council of Ministers for Ankole which shall consist of such number of Ministers who shall be responsible for such business of the Omugabe's Government as may from time to time be agreed between the Omugabe and the Government of Uganda:

Provided that—

(a) of the Ministers of Ankole one shall be the Enganzi;

(b) the functions of a Minister shall not include administrative responsibility for the Treasury of the Omugabe's Government which shall be in charge of a permanent official.

(2) Until it is otherwise agreed between the Omugabe and the Government of Uganda the Council of Ministers of Ankole shall consist of—

(a) the Enganzi, who shall also be the leader of the Eishengyero (hereinafter referred to as the Enganzi);

(b) a Minister of Finance to be known as the Omubiki (hereinafter referred to as the Omubiki);

(c) a Minister of Education;

(d) a Minister of Health and Works.

(3) When there is occasion for the resignation of the Council of Ministers to be tendered, the Enganzi shall tender the resignation of the Ministers collectively to the Omugabe through the Speaker (Kashoboorozi), and the Omugabe shall thereupon accept the resignation:

Provided that where the resignation is tendered in accordance with the provisions of article 9 of this Constitution, the Omugabe shall not accept the resignation until the Enganzi submits to him the names of persons selected for the ministerial offices in accordance with article 11 of this Constitution.

(4) Each member of the Council of Ministers shall have such responsibilities as may be determined by the Enganzi.

7. (1) The Omugabe's Council of Ministers as a whole shall be charged with the conduct of the Omugabe's Government and each Minister shall be individually responsible for the policies of such departments of the Omugabe's Government as may be placed in his charge.

Conduct of Omugabe's
Govern-

(2) All acts of the Omugabe's Government shall, save in so far as law and custom otherwise require, be done in the name of the Omugabe.

(3) Where any function under this Constitution is exercisable by the Omugabe, that function shall, unless a contrary intention appears, be exercised by him by means of a written instrument signed by him in the presence of a Minister, who shall sign the same as witness.

(4) Where it is provided in this Constitution that the Omugabe may exercise a power upon the recommendation of any person or authority he shall exercise that power in accordance with that recommendation.

(5) A statement in writing signed by the Enganzi that the Omugabe has exercised any power that is required to be exercised upon the recommendation of the Enganzi or of the Council of Ministers in accordance with the recommendation shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

(6) A true copy of a minute of the Ankole Public Service Commission certified by the Chairman of the Commission recording that the Omugabe has exercised any power that is required to be exercised upon the recommendation of the Commission in accordance with the recommendation shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

8. The Enganzi shall keep the Omugabe fully informed on all important matters concerning the Omugabe's Government.

Omugabe to be kept informed.

9. (1) When the Eishengyero meets for the first time after any dissolution thereof, the resignation of the Council of Ministers then in office shall be tendered.

Procedure
when Eishengyero
first meets after dissolution.

(2) When the resignation of the Council of Ministers has been tendered in accordance with paragraph (1) of this article an Enganzi shall be elected and appointed in accordance with article 10 of the Constitution and other Ministers shall be elected and appointed in accordance with article 11 of this Constitution.

Election of Enganzi.

10. (1) At such time as it is necessary to elect an Enganzi, the Speaker shall by order published in such manner as he may think fit—

(a) direct that such election be held;

(b) appoint a day, not being less than five days after such order is published, as nomination day, and

(c) appoint a day, not being less than four days after the day appointed for nomination day, for the holding of a ballot, if necessary.

(2) Any two members of the Eishengyero may nominate any other person whether or not he is a member of the Eishengyero as a candidate for election as Enganzi.

(3) If after the day appointed as nomination day only one person has been nominated for election as Enganzi the Speaker (Kasho-boorozi) shall declare that person to be elected as the Enganzi designate. If more than one candidate has been nominated for election; the Speaker shall order a ballot to be taken.

(4) If any ballot is ordered to be taken for the election of the Enganzi voting shall be by secret ballot, and the Speaker shall declare to be elected as the Enganzi designate the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes.

(5) After the Speaker has declared any person to be elected as Enganzi designate, such person shall present himself to the Omugabe, who shall formally appoint him as Enganzi by handing to him the rod of office.

(6) If, when a ballot is taken under the provisions of this article, two or more candidates receive the same number of votes and by reason thereof the Speaker is unable to declare any candidate to have been elected Enganzi designate, he shall submit the names of those candidates to the Omugabe, who shall select one of them to be the Enganzi.

Appointment of other Ministers.

11. (1) When the Enganzi has been elected and appointed under the provisions of article 10 of this Constitution, the Speaker shall fix a day by which nominations of candidates for the other Ministerial offices other than the office of the Enganzi shall be submitted to him.

(2) Any two members of the Eishengyero may nominate any other person, whether or not he is a member of the Eishengyero, as a candidate for the other ministerial offices.

(3) Nominations shall be for the ministerial offices generally and not for any particular ministerial offices and shall be submitted in writing signed by the person or persons making them, to the Speaker, on or before the day fixed by him on that behalf.

(4) The Speaker shall prepare a list of the candidates who have been duly nominated for the ministerial offices and shall cause copies of the list to be laid before the Eishengyero.

(5) If the names of more than three persons appear in the list of candidates the Eishengyero shall on a day appointed by the Speaker by secret ballot elect as Minister designate three persons whose names appear in the list.

(6) The Enganzi shall assign each of the three persons who have been nominated, or elected as the case may be, to ministerial office as Minister designate of a particular Ministry and such person shall thereupon present himself to the Omugabe who shall appoint him as Minister of such Ministry by receiving his homage and allegiance in customary form.

12. (1) If the offices of the Ministers become vacant at any time by reason of the resignation of the Council of Ministers under article 17 of this Constitution an Enganzi and Ministers shall be appointed in accordance with the procedure laid down in article 10 and 11 of this Constitution.

Vacancies
among the Ministers.

(2) (a) If the office of Enganzi becomes vacant at any time otherwise than by reason of the resignation of the Council of Ministers under article 17 of this Constitution an Enganzi shall be elected in accordance with the procedure laid down in article 10 of this Constitution, and the Omugabe shall appoint him to be Enganzi by handing him the rod of office.

(b) When an Enganzi has been appointed the other Ministers holding office at the time of the appointment shall tender their resignations to the Omugabe, and the Enganzi shall recommend to the Omugabe in relation to each Minister either that he should accept or that he should refuse the resignation, and the Omugabe shall act in accordance with the recommendation.

(c) If by reason of the acceptance of resignations, the offices of the Ministers other than the Enganzi become vacant—

(i) the Speaker (Kashoboorozi) shall fix a day by which nominations of candidates for the ministerial offices other than the office of Enganzi shall be submitted to him;

(ii) any person may be nominated as a candidate for the ministerial offices, whether or not he is a member of the Eishengyero;

(iii) nominations shall be for the ministerial offices generally and not for any particular ministerial office, and shall be submitted in writing, signed by the person or persons making them, to the Speaker on or before the day fixed by him in that behalf;

(iv) the Speaker shall prepare a list of the persons who have been duly nominated for the ministerial offices and shall cause copies of the list to be laid before the Eishengyero and if the names of more persons appear in the list than there are vacancies among the ministerial offices the Eishengyero shall on the third day thereafter or on such other day as the Speaker shall consider convenient, by secret ballot elect as Minister designate persons equal in number to the vacancies;

(v) the Enganzi shall submit the names of the persons selected under the foregoing provision of this sub-paragraph to the Omugabe with a recommendation that each such person shall be appointed to a particular ministerial office, and the Omugabe shall appoint the person selected to the ministerial offices for which they have been recommended by receiving their homage and allegiance in customary form in respect of those offices.

(3) (a) If a ministerial office other than that of the Enganzi becomes vacant at any time otherwise than by reason of resignation of the Council of Ministers, the Speaker shall, so soon as convenient, fix a day by which nominations of candidates for office will be submitted to him.

(b) Any person may be nominated for the vacant office whether or not he is a member of the Eishengyero.

(c) Nominations shall be submitted in writing, signed by the person or persons making them, to the Speaker on or before the day fixed by him in that behalf.

(d) The Speaker shall prepare a list of the persons who have been duly nominated for the vacant office and shall have copies of the list laid before the Eishengyero, and, if there is more than one such person the Eishengyero shall, on the third day thereafter, or on such other day as the Speaker shall consider convenient, by secret ballot elect a person to the vacant office from the persons whose names appear on the list.

(e) The Enganzi shall submit the name of any person selected under the foregoing provisions to the Omugabe, and the Omugabe shall appoint him to the vacant office by receiving his homage and allegiance in customary form in respect of the office.

Tenure of office of Ministers.

13. (1) The office of a Minister shall become vacant—

(a) if the holder of the office dies or resigns by writing under his hand addressed to the Omugabe through the Enganzi;

(b) if the resignation of the Council of Ministers is accepted by the Omugabe; or

(c) if his appointment is terminated under article 14 or 15 of this Constitution.

(2) Whenever the office of the Enganzi becomes vacant the rod of office shall be delivered to the Omugabe forthwith in the customary manner.

(3) If at any time the office of a Minister is vacant, the functions of the Minister shall be discharged during the period of the vacancy in such manner as the Enganzi, or, if the office of Enganzi is vacant, the remaining Ministers shall decide:

Provided that if the offices of all the Ministers are vacant, the functions of each Minister (other than those functions that he performs in his capacity as a member of the Eishengyero) shall, during the period in which the said offices remain vacant, be discharged by the Permanent Secretary or Head of Department to that Minister.

14. (1) The Omugabe shall terminate the appointment of a Minister if he is convicted of a serious criminal offence and is sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Termination of appointment of Minister on misconduct or incapacity.

(2) If a Minister is convicted of a serious criminal offence and is not sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine and the offence in the opinion of the Omugabe might involve moral turpitude, the Omugabe shall appoint a committee, consisting of such persons as he shall consider suitable, to enquire into the nature of the offence, and the committee shall, if it is satisfied that the offence involved moral turpitude, inform the Omugabe accordingly, and thereupon the Omugabe shall terminate the appointment of the Minister.

(3) If in the opinion of the Omugabe a Minister may have become incapable of performing his functions as a Minister by reason of physical or mental infirmity, the Omugabe shall appoint a committee consisting of such persons as he shall consider suitable to enquire into the matter; and the committee shall, if it is satisfied that the Minister has become incapable of performing his functions as a Minister by reason of physical or mental infirmity, inform the Omugabe accordingly and thereupon the Omugabe shall terminate the appointment of the Minister.

15. (1) If in the opinion of the Enganzi any Minister has failed to carry out the policy or the decisions of the Council of Ministers either persistently or in respect of an important matter, he may call a meeting of the Ministers and propose that the Minister should be dismissed.

Termination of appointment of Minister for failure to carry out policy of Ministry.

(2) The proposal shall be put to the vote, and if a majority of the votes of the Ministers are cast in favour of the proposal, the Enganzi shall recommend to the Omugabe that he should terminate the appointment of that Minister and the Omugabe shall terminate the appointment accordingly.

(3) Each Minister, other than the Minister whose dismissal is proposed, may vote on the proposal and in the event of an equality of votes the matter shall be referred to the Omugabe whose decision shall be final.

Transfer of Ministers.

16. (1) The Omugabe may, on the recommendation of the Enganzi, transfer the holder of any ministerial office, other than the office of Enganzi, to another such ministerial office.

(2) When any person is to be transferred from one ministerial office to another under this article, he shall tender his resignation from the office that he is relinquishing to the Omugabe, who shall then receive his homage and allegiance in customary form in respect of the office to which he is being transferred.

Vote of no confidence in Ministry.

17. (1) If a motion declared by the Speaker under paragraph (3) of this article to be a motion of no confidence in the Omugabe's Council of Ministers on an important matter is carried by the Eishengyero the resignation of the Council shall be tendered to the Omugabe through the Speaker.

(2) Fourteen days' notice shall be given to the Eishengyero by the Speaker before any such motion is debated.

(3) If in the opinion of the Speaker any motion (including a motion that has been amended) that has been proposed by not less than twenty members of the Eishengyero is a motion signifying no confidence in the Council of Ministers on an important matter, he shall declare it as such and his declaration shall be final:

Provided that any motion proposed by not less than twenty members of the Eishengyero that specifically expresses no confidence in the Ministry shall be deemed for the purpose of this article to be a motion of no confidence.

Eishengyero.

18. (1) The Eishengyero (which shall be the Legislative Assembly of Ankole) shall consist of—

(a) the Speaker who shall be known as the Kashoboorozi and shall be elected and hold office in accordance with the provisions of article 22 of this Constitution;

(b) the Ministers;

(c) fifty-five elected members;

(d) five persons (to be known as specially elected members) to be elected by secret ballot by the elected members;

(e) five persons (to be known as nominated members) to be nominated, after the election of the special members, by the Omugabe;

(f) the Saza Chiefs.

(2) A person shall be qualified for election as an elected or a specially elected member of the Eishengyero if—

(a) he has the qualifications prescribed by the Constitution of Uganda for election as an elected member of the National Assembly (other than any qualification relating to his ability to speak English);

(b) he is able to speak Runyankore; and

(c) is not disqualified to be a member of the National Assembly under the provisions of subsection (1) of section 31 of the Constitution of Uganda.

(3) The following provisions shall apply to the election of elected members to the Eishengyero—

(a) each constituency shall be represented by one elected member;

(b) every person whose name appears on the parts of the register of electors prepared for elections to the National Assembly which refer to the area included in a constituency shall be entitled to vote at elections for elected members of the Eishengyero to represent that constituency;

(c) the elections shall be conducted in accordance with the general law of Uganda relating to the election of elected members of the National Assembly:

Provided that the Governor, after consulting with the Omugabe, may by order make such modifications to that law for the purpose of its application to elections to the Eishengyero, as he may consider necessary.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution the specially elected members shall be elected in such manner as may be prescribed by Ankole law.

19. (1) The Omugabe shall, as soon as practicable after the coming into force of the article and wherever it shall be necessary for the review of the boundaries of constituencies, appoint an Electoral Boundary Commissioner.

Electoral Boundary
Commissioner.

(2) The Electoral Boundary Commissioner shall be an independent and impartial person and, in the discharge of his functions under the Constitution shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

(3) The Electoral Boundary Commissioner shall be appointed for such period as may be agreed between the Commissioner and the Omugabe as being necessary for the performance of his functions under article 20 of this Constitution and during that period he shall not be removed from office by the Omugabe except for inability to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of mind or body or from any other cause) or for misbehaviour.

(4) Before tendering advice to the Omugabe as to the appointment of any person to be Electoral Boundary Commissioner the Enganzi shall consult the leader of the principal party in opposition in the Eishengyero, and before any appointment is made, the Omugabe shall consult the Governor.

Delimitation of constituencies.

20. (1) For the purposes of election to the Eishengyero, Ankole shall be divided into as many constituencies as there are elected members of the Eishengyero in such manner as the Electoral Boundary Commissioner may determine.

(2) The boundaries of each constituency shall be such that the electorate is, as far as practicable equal in all constituencies.

(3) The boundaries of the constituencies for elections to the Eishengyero shall be reviewed by an Electoral Boundary Commissioner from time to time at intervals of not more than five years, and upon the completion of the review the Electoral Boundary Commissioner may make such alterations in the boundaries of the constituencies as he may consider necessary to give effect to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this article.

Tenure of
office of elected and specially elected members.

21. (1) Every elected member or specially elected member of the Eishengyero shall vacate his seat in the Eishengyero upon its dissolution.

(2) An elected member or a specially elected member of the Eishengyero shall vacate his seat in the Eishengyero—

(a) if he dies;

(b) if he ceases to be a British subject or ceases to be a British protected person without becoming a British subject;

(c) if he is absent from the sittings of the Eishengyero for such period and in such circumstances as may be prescribed by the Standing Orders of the Eishengyero;

(d) if he resigns by writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker; or

(e) if any circumstances arise that would cause him to be disqualified for election under article 18 of this Constitution.

Election of Speaker.

22. (1) When the Eishengyero meets for the first time after any dissolution thereof the members present before transacting any other business shall elect a Speaker, and a Deputy Speaker by a simple majority.

(2) As often as the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker falls vacant otherwise than by reason of the dissolution of the Eishengyero, the members thereof shall as soon as practicable elect a person to that office.

(3) A person may be elected to be Speaker whether or not he is a member of the Eishengyero.

(4) No person shall be elected as a Deputy Speaker unless he is a member of the Eishengyero.

(5) The Speaker shall receive such salary as may from time to time be determined by the Eishengyero.

(6) The office of the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker shall become vacant—

- (a) upon a dissolution of the Eishengyero; or
- (b) if the holder of the office dies or resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Omugabe;
- (c) in the case of the Deputy Speaker if he ceases to be a member of the Eishengyero otherwise than by reason of a dissolution thereof; or
- (d) if his appointment is terminated by resolution of the Eishengyero upon a motion proposed by not less than fifteen members of the Eishengyero and in favour of which there are cast the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the voting members of the Eishengyero.

23. There shall preside at any meeting of the Eishengyero—

- (a) the Speaker;
- (b) in the absence of the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker;
- (c) in the absence of the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker, such person as may be elected by the Eishengyero from amongst its members:

Presiding
in Eishengyero;

Provided that, when the Eishengyero meets to elect a Speaker or specially elected members, the Chief Judge (Omuramuzi) shall preside.

24. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Constitution—

- (a) all questions proposed for decision in the Eishengyero shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting:

Quorum
and Votes.

Provided that—

- (i) neither the Speaker nor the Deputy Speaker nor any member of the Eishengyero while presiding therein, shall have a vote or be entitled to take part in debate;
- (ii) a person who is a member of the Eishengyero by virtue of holding the office of a Saza Chief shall be entitled to take part in debate but he shall not be entitled to vote;
- (b) if on any question the votes are equally divided the motion shall be lost.

(2) No business except that of adjournment shall be transacted in the Eishengyero if there are present (beside the Speaker or other person presiding) less than twenty voting members of the Eishengyero.

(3) No member of the Eishengyero shall be permitted to take part in proceedings of the Eishengyero (other than the proceedings necessary for the purpose of this article) unless he shall have made and subscribed before the Eishengyero the oath of affirmation, as the case may be, set out in the Schedule to this Constitution.

Standing Orders.

25. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Eishengyero shall make Standing Orders for the regulation and orderly conduct of its own proceedings and for the passing of Ankole laws.

(2) If, after the expiration of three months after the coming into force of this Constitution, it appears to the Governor that the Standing Orders of the Eishengyero then in force are insufficient or inappropriate or that no Standing Orders have been made he may, by notice in writing addressed to the Speaker, require the Eishengyero to make such Standing Orders as he may specify within the time limited in the notice, and if the Eishengyero fails to comply with such requirements the Governor may make Standing Orders for the Eishengyero in accordance with the terms of the notice.

Dissolu-
tion of Eishengyero.

26. (1) The Omugabe shall dissolve the Eishengyero if two-thirds of all the voting members of the Eishengyero pass a resolution requesting him to dissolve it.

(2) The Eishengyero, unless sooner dissolved, shall stand dissolved not earlier than five years and not later than five years and six months from the date of its first sitting after any dissolution.

(3) The Omugabe may dissolve the Eishengyero if the Council of Ministers has resigned under article 17 of this Constitution and he is satisfied that no other Ministers can be found who will have the confidence of the Eishengyero.

Legislature of Ankole.

27. (1) The Legislature of Ankole shall consist of the Omugabe, acting with the advice and consent of the Eishengyero.

(2) The power of the Legislature of Ankole to make laws shall be exercised by Bills passed by the Eishengyero and assented to by the Omugabe.

(3) When a Bill has been passed by the Eishengyero it shall be submitted by the Enganzi to the Omugabe, who shall sign the same in token of assent.

(4) A law enacted by the Legislature of Ankole shall be published in English and in Runyankore in the Uganda Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of its publication in the Uganda Gazette or on such other date as may be provided in the law.

Committees
of Eishengyero.

28. (1) The Eishengyero may establish standing and ad hoc committees to advise the Ministers.

Provided that there shall be an education committee of the Eishengyero which shall be constituted in such a manner as the Legislature of Uganda may prescribe.

(2) Until the Eishengyero otherwise provide there shall be the following committees (in addition to the education committee)—

(a) a finance committee of which the Omubiki shall be the chairman;

(b) a health committee, of which the Minister of Health and Works shall be the chairman;

(c) a works committee of which the Minister of Health and Works shall be the chairman.

(3) A committee established under the provisions of this article may include persons who are not members of the Eishengyero, or may be authorised by the Eishengyero to co-opt as members of the committee persons who are not members of the Eishengyero:

Provided that at least two-thirds of the members of every such committee shall be members of the Eishengyero.

(4) A committee appointed under the provisions of this Constitution may invite any person (including a member of the Eishengyero) to attend meetings and take part in its deliberations, but no such person shall vote at any such meeting.

29. (1) The public accounts of the Omugabe's Government shall be audited and reported on by the Government Auditor of the Uganda Government or by such other auditor as may be approved by the Government Auditor and for that purpose the Auditor or any person authorised by him in that behalf shall have access to all books, records, reports and other books relating to those accounts.

Audit of Accounts.

(2) The Auditor shall have power to surcharge officers, chiefs, or employees of the Omugabe's Government in connection with unauthorised expenditure or losses of money or property.

(3) The Omugabe's Government shall send to the Auditor the accounts of that Government duly made up within four months of the conclusion of the period to which they refer.

(4) The Auditor shall submit his report to the Minister of the Uganda Government responsible for finance and to the Omugabe's Government and the Omugabe's Government shall cause the Auditor's report together with the accounts to which it refers to be published in the Uganda Gazette.

30. (1) The Eishengyero shall appoint a Public Accounts Committee from amongst its members whose duties shall be to consider the accounts of the Omugabe's Government in conjunction with the Auditor's report and to report to the Eishengyero—

Public
Accounts
Committee.

(a) in the case of any excess or unauthorised expenditure of funds, the reasons for such expenditure; and

(b) any measures it considers necessary in order to ensure that the funds of the Omugabe's Government are properly and economically spent.

(2) The Public Accounts Committee shall submit its report to the Omubiki within three months of the publication of the accounts and the report of the Public Accounts Committee, together with the Omubiki's comments thereon, shall be laid on the table of the Eishengyero and published in the Gazette within three months of its submission to the Omubiki.

Ankole
Public Service
Commission.

31. (1) There shall be established an Ankole Public Service Commission which shall consist of a chairman and five other members.

(2) The members of the Ankole Public Service Commission shall be appointed by the Omugabe.

(3) The office of a member of the Ankole Public Service Commission shall become vacant—

(a) at the expiration of four years from the date of his appointment; or

(b) if he dies or resigns; or

(c) if his appointment is terminated by the Omugabe.

(4) In the exercise of the powers conferred by this article the Omugabe shall act in conformity with the advice of the Governor acting in his discretion.

Appointments, etc., of officers
of Omugabe's
ment.

32. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, power to appoint persons to hold or act in offices in the service of Omugabe's Government (including the office of Saza Chief, Gombolola Chief and chief in charge of a muluka or parish), to exercise disciplinary control over persons holding or acting in such offices, and to remove such persons from office shall vest in the Omugabe acting in accordance with the recommendation of the Ankole Public Service Commission:

Provided that the power to appoint to the office of Permanent Secretary on transfer from another such office carrying the same emoluments shall be exercised by the Omugabe in accordance with the recommendations of the Enganzi.

(2) The powers conferred upon the Ankole Public Service Commission by this article shall be exercised in conformity with the provisions of the Ankole Staff Regulations.

(3) The provisions of this article shall not apply in relation to—

(a) any office to which the provisions of section 86 of the Constitution of Uganda applies;

(b) any office in a police force established for Ankole;

(c) to the extent that it may be agreed between the Uganda Government and the Omugabe's Government, persons seconded from the service of the Uganda Government to the service of the Omugabe's Government.

(4) Any person holding or acting in an office in the service of the Omugabe's Government shall be deemed to resign that office if he accepts appointment as a Minister or as Speaker of the Eishengyero.

33. There shall be a Permanent Secretary or Head of Department to each Minister. The Permanent Secretary to the Enganzi, who shall be known as the Kihimba, shall be the head of the Ankole Civil Service and shall be responsible for the administration of the Ankole Staff Regulations.

Permanent Secretaries.

34. (1) The Omugabe's Council of Ministers after consultation with the Uganda Public Service Commission may make regulations (to be known as the Ankole Staff Regulations), for all or any of the following purposes relating to persons in or desiring to enter the service of the Omugabe's Government—

Staff Regulations.

(a) the manner in which the Ankole Public Service Commission shall carry out its functions;

(b) the maintenance of discipline;

(c) the regulation of appointments on promotion and transfer, remuneration, termination of appointments and leave;

(d) providing for suspension from duty and salary to be paid during such suspension;

(e) regulating the payment of allowances, the making of advances and other terms and conditions of service;

(f) authorising the Ankole Public Service Commission to delegate its responsibilities under article 32 of this Constitution in respect of such classes of officers and employees in the service of the Omugabe's Government as may be specified in the Regulations;

(g) such other matters relating to departmental procedure and the duties and responsibilities of chiefs, officers and employees, as the Ministers consider can be best regulated by such Regulations.

(2) The Ankole Staff Regulations in so far as they relate to discipline, may, without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of paragraph (1) of this article, provide for—

(a) withholding or deferring increments either permanently or for a specified period;

(b) reduction in rank or salary either permanently or temporarily; and

(c) deductions from salary in respect of damage to property caused by misconduct or breach of duty.

(3) No regulations made under this article shall have effect unless the Governor has, by writing under his hand, consented to its having effect.

(4) Regulations made under section 69 of the District Administration (District Councils) Ordinance, 1955, and in force immediately before the coming into force of this Constitution shall, in so far as they apply in relation to Ankole, have effect as if they had been made under the article and may be amended or revoked accordingly.

Chiefs.

35. (1) At the head of each Saza in Ankole there shall be a chief who shall be called a Saza Chief and who shall be responsible to the Kihimba for the administration of the Saza.

(2) Each Saza shall be divided into Gombololas and each such Gombolola shall be in the charge of a chief who shall be called a Gombolola Chief. Each Gombolola may be divided into Miruka or into parishes and in each Muluka or parish there may, if the Eishengero so resolve, be a chief.

(3) The Gombolola Chiefs and other chiefs referred to in paragraph (2) of this article shall assist Saza Chiefs in the performance of their duties.

THE SCHEDULE TO THE CONSTITUTION
